*Instead, his delight is in the Lord's instruction,
and he meditates on it day and night.
He is like a tree planted
beside flowing streams that bears its fruit in its season
and its leaf does not wither.
Whatever he does prospers.*

Psalms 1:2-3

What is this Journal?

We believe that a practice of daily Bible reading is crucial for every disciple of Jesus. It is through the word of God that we are able to hear from God and walk in the life-giving obedience that he has for us. This journal set is meant to be a tool for you to develop a habit of daily Bible reading and journaling in an easy and accessible way.

This journal set has one page for every day of the year. Each page includes the reading for the day at the top of the page, as well as space for journaling.

Why this Reading Plan?

The reading plan in this Journal is the first half of a two-year Bible reading plan. On Saturdays, the reading includes the passage(s) of Scripture that will be preached the next day in our worship services. On Sundays, the reading is a Psalm or Proverb.

On Failure and Grace

Throughout the year you may find yourself in a place where you have missed a few days, weeks, or even months of Bible reading. It's easy to think, "I've blown it, I might as well give up until next year." That is not what Jesus says to us in our failure, and it's not how this plan is designed to work. No matter how much time has elapsed since the last time you read, you can pick up on whatever day it is. Success for this plan is not completing the entire plan, but rather developing a habit of daily engagement with the Bible that creates real life change.

When you fail this year, receive the grace that Jesus is offering you. Allow him to put his arm around you, forgive you, and lead you into renewal through a daily engagement with his word.

The S.O.A.P. Journaling Method

Journaling is helpful in developing discipline in Bible reading for several reasons: 1) It prompts a healthy approach to biblical interpretation, 2) Helps a person slow down and read thoughtfully, 3) Provides a means of accountability with other believers.

S – Begin by writing an S, at the top left of your journal. The S stands for Scripture. Beside the S, write out a verse or set of verses that stand out to you in the passage you are reading.

O – Next, write an O, which stands for Observation. An observation is what you observe the author to be communicating the text. In biblical interpretation, it is imperative we read and receive what is written and that we ask: “What does this say, and what does this mean?”

Every passage in the Bible has meaning and purpose! All Scripture was written by authors under inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and each author wrote with intention and purpose in mind. Therefore, it is critical in reading the Bible that we aren’t primarily asking, “What does this mean to me?” or “How does this make me feel?” but rather we are seeking to understand what truth(s) God is revealing to us through the author. Understanding a passage’s meaning must precede making life application.

Here are some helpful questions for making observations of a passage’s meaning:

- What is the author saying?
- What is happening in this story? Who is involved?
- What does this passage teach me about God?
- What does this passage teach me about man and sin?
- How does this passage connect to other passages in the Bible?
- Is there a command to obey?
- Is there an example to follow?
- Is there sin to avoid?
- Is there a promise to claim?

A – Next, write an A, which stands for Application. An application is how you plan to apply, obey, and respond to what God is saying in the passage. After discovering a passage's meaning, then we can ask the question, "How should I respond to Jesus in light of what I have discovered?"

The Application portion of the journal is where you write down how you are being convicted to respond to the Lord. Here are helpful questions below to help guide your application of the text:

- What is your biggest takeaway?
- What do I need to do differently today considering this passage? How must I change?
- What do I need to believe as a result of what God reveals in this text?
- How does this passage lead me to worship God?
- Is there sin I need to confess after reading this passage?
- How does the grace of Jesus help me to become this?

P – Next, write a P, which stands for Prayer. It is important to pray and ask God to give you the power to obey what He is saying in the passage. Spend time praying through what God has shown you. Some of our best times in prayer will flow out of what we have read from the word!

El Método de Diario Bíblico S.O.A.P.

El método de diario bíblico S.O.A.P. (acrónimo en inglés) es útil para desarrollar disciplina por varias razones: (1) Promueve un enfoque saludable para interpretar la Biblia, (2) Ayuda a desacelerar y leer con atención, (3) Proporciona una forma de rendir cuentas junto a otros creyentes.

S – Comienza escribiendo una S en la esquina superior izquierda de tu diario. La S representa “Escritura” esto es Scripture en inglés. Junto a la S, copia un versículo o conjunto de versículos que te hayan llamado la atención en el pasaje que estás leyendo.

O – Después, escribe una O, que representa “Observación”. Una observación es lo que percibes que el autor está comunicando en el texto. En la interpretación bíblica, es fundamental leer y recibir lo que está escrito, y preguntarse: “¿Qué dice esto y qué significa?”

¡Cada pasaje de la Biblia tiene un significado y un propósito! Toda la Escritura fue escrita por autores bajo la inspiración del Espíritu Santo, y cada autor escribió con una intención clara. Por eso, al leer la Biblia, no debemos preguntarnos primero: “¿Qué significa esto para mí?” o “¿Cómo me hace sentir esto?”, sino más bien buscar entender qué verdad nos está revelando Dios a través del

Aquí hay algunas preguntas útiles para hacer observaciones sobre el significado de un pasaje:

- ¿Qué está diciendo el autor?
- ¿Qué está ocurriendo en esta historia? ¿Quiénes están involucrados?
- ¿Qué me enseña este pasaje sobre Dios?
- ¿Qué me enseña este pasaje sobre el ser humano y el pecado?
- ¿Cómo se conecta este pasaje con otros en la Biblia?
- ¿Hay algún mandamiento que obedecer?
- ¿Hay algún ejemplo a seguir?
- ¿Hay algún pecado que evitar?
- ¿Hay alguna promesa que abrazar?

A – Luego, escribe una A, que representa “Aplicación”. La aplicación es la forma en que planeas obedecer, aplicar y responder a lo que Dios está diciendo en el pasaje. Después de descubrir el significado del pasaje, entonces podemos preguntarnos: “¿Cómo debo responder a Jesús a la luz de lo que he descubierto?”

La sección de Aplicación en tu diario es donde escribes cómo el Señor te está confrontando y llamando a responder. Aquí hay algunas preguntas útiles que pueden guiarte:

- ¿Cuál es la enseñanza principal que te llevas?
- ¿Qué necesito hacer diferente hoy a la luz de este pasaje? ¿En qué debo cambiar?
- ¿Qué necesito creer como resultado de lo que Dios revela en este texto?
- ¿Cómo me lleva este pasaje a adorar a Dios?
- ¿Hay algún pecado que necesito confesar después de leer este pasaje?
- ¿Cómo me ayuda la gracia de Jesús a ser lo que este texto me llama a ser?

P – Finalmente, escribe una P, que representa “Oración” esto es Prayer en inglés. Es importante orar y pedirle a Dios que te dé el poder para obedecer lo que Él está diciendo en el pasaje. Tómate un tiempo para orar sobre lo que Dios te ha mostrado.

Algunos de nuestros mejores tiempos de oración nacen directamente de lo que hemos leído en la Palabra.
